Reds Open Offensive To South

Sweeping Gains Made; Reaching Close To East Prussia Border

By TOM YARBROUGH

LONDON, July 15—(P)—The Russians tonight announced sweeping gains on the north central Niemen river front, outflanking the German fortress of Grodno and reaching within eight miles of the Suwalki border of East Prussia, and the German command announced that a tremendous new Soviet offensive had begun in the south of old Poland.

The Russian midnight communiqué announced successes all down the Baltic-White Russian front, beginning with the capture of Opolka, 24 miles east of the Latvian border. The Russians announced Friday night they had taken the railway station and were fighting in the streets.

Moscow was silent on the southern Polish front.

Westward in the big bulge that reaches along the lower Latvian border and deep into Eastern Lithuania, the Russians announced extension of their outflanking maneuver against Daugavpils with capture of Onikshy and Pichany, railway towns 60 miles west of Daugavpils.

Seize Rail Junction Town

West and southwest of Wilno the Red army moved less than 19 miles from Kaunas, reporting the seizure of the railway junction town of Kaisiadorys and Alytus, 32 miles south of Kaunas. The Germans said three days previously that the Russians had taken Alytus, but the Soviets remained silent until their broadcast communiqué tonight.

In possibly the most significant development of the day announced by Moscow, the communiqué said Soviet troops had reached the Nieman river line on a 75-mile front north and south of Alytus and had crossed that historic water barrier at many points.

This put them less than eight miles from the Suwalki triangle that was annexed to East Prussia in September, 1939, and placed Russian soldiers well northwest of Grodno, which already was in the process of being outflanked from the southwest.

Take Many Towns

Some 30 miles south, in their drive towards Bialystock, the Russians reported they crossed the Rosa river and seized numerous towns north of Wolkowysk and west and southwest of Slonim.

The process of clearing the Pripyat marshes around Pinsk continued, with capture of several towns and railway stations, the Russians said, but there they halted their announcements, saying that on other sectors of the front there were no essential changes."

This disagreed strongly with the German high command and German radio announcement which asserted the Russians had launched a major offensive towards Lwow in the southern part of old Poland, extending the active front to a length of more than 700 miles.

The new thrust, the Germans said, was aimed west and southwest from the strategic area between Luck and Tarnopol, bases which the Russians seized in the last stages of their winter offensive.

"The new drive, announced by the German high command and discussed by the Nazi radio throughout the day, was described by Berlin as a highly important military event and as the "curtain raiser" to a probable shift of the main Russian strength to the southern sector."

Former Printer To Pastorate

The Rev. Jack R. Perry, a former printer who was ordained as a Baptist minister in Kansas City July 6, has accepted a call to the pulpit of the Hopewell Baptist church, located about ten miles north of Sedalia, according to an article in the Kansas City Star Saturday.

At one time holding a position as linotype operator on the morning edition of the Star, the Rev. Perry attended the Central Baptist Theological seminary in Kansas City, Kas.

His ordination took place at the Garfield Avenue Baptist church in Kansas City.

On Commission

George M. Berry, of St. Louis, recently was appointed by Gov. Forrest C. Donnell as a member of the Missouri state Social Security Commission. Berry succeeded the late Wallace Crossley.

Heart Attack Is Fatal For Jesse B. Greer

Had Lived On Big Farm For Nearly 80 Years

Jesse Benjamin Greer, aged 79 years, prominent farmer and stockman and lifelong resident of Pettis county, died at his home 12 miles north of Sedalia on highway 65, about five o'clock Saturday afternoon when he suffered a heart attack while sitting on his front porch, only a short time after he returned from a trip to Sedalia with his son-in-law, John W. Wall. He had been in good health and had not complained of being ill Saturday.

Near 80 Years On Same Farm

Mr. Greer was born and reared and lived his entire life on the same farm, which has been in the family for more than 100 years, having been bequeathed by the government to his grandfather. Surviving is his only daughter, Mrs. John W. Wall, the former Miss Mary Ellen Greer, who, with Mr. Wall, has made her home with him since the death of Mrs. Greer, September 11, 1926. Mrs. Wall is the fourth generation to live on the farm.

One of Mr. Greer's aunts was the first woman to be married in Pettis county about 107 years ago. In the original land grant there was approximately 300 acres. The present farm contains 1,700 acres.

Born January 27, 1865, he was the son of David and Orpha Swope Greer. He was married at his home on January 24, 1906, to Miss Nellie Aubushon, of Longwood, Mo.

Surviving besides his daughter are three brothers, David Greer, of Houstonia, Ernest Greer, of Houghsville, and G. H. Greer, of Olathe, Kas.

Mr. Greer was a member of the Bethlehem Christian church near his home and at the time of his death was a deacon.

The body was brought to Gillespie's funeral home. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

The flyer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ripley of LaMonte. He was a sheet metal man with North American Aviation, Inc., in Kansas City and entered the AAF in January 1943.

Hurl Bombs And Shells On Guam Island

Blast Airfield At Orote Located On West Coast

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, July 15—(P)—Adm. Raymond A. Spruance's warships joined Vice Adm. Marc A. Mitscher's carrier groups in shelling and bombing Guam Friday—extending assault on that former U. S. outpost through the 11th straight day.

Gun emplacements and the airfield at Orote, on a peninsula guarding one of the finest harbors in the Pacific, were blasted by shells and carrier plane bombs, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced tonight in a press release. Four enemy planes were destroyed on the ground.

The Orote peninsula forms the southern part of Port Apia, of Pernambuco, Brazil, has been visiting in Sedalia and Pettis county the past week.

Items like that may become commonplace in the newspaper of the future era of world-wide air transportation. But even today visitors from foreign countries seem to search out Pettis county for observation.

Spurace's Fifth fleet helped in the invasion of Saipan, a task accomplished, thus releasing units of his group to augment MacArthur's task force 58.

Nimitz also announced that Japan's phosphate-producing base of Nauru, her bypassed stronghold of Truk and the eastern Carolines base of Ponape were attacked Thursday. Army and navy planes hit Nauru, army bombers the two Carolines targets.

Emergency Use For Airport

An emergency arose recently in a central Missouri town where a relief valve was needed by a plumber to complete a government project which had to be in operation that night. Calls were made to various surrounding towns but a relief valve could not be found. Finally they called the Suter Plumbing company of Sedalia and were told that they could get the valve there.

"I'll be over in a half hour," said the man. "Bring it out to the Sedalia Municipal Airport, I'm flying over."

The order was delivered to the airport and in the half hour the man had reached there, got the valve and was well on his way back to the town where the valve was so badly needed. Had it not been for the Sedalia airport where he could land his plane he would have had to drive to Sedalia and thus delayed this essential government work.

Pvt. Kingsbury Dies In Service

Mrs. Fredonia L. Kingsbury, 418 North Monteau avenue, has received official word from Adjutant General Ullo of the death of her son, Private Roderick M. Kingsbury, reported missing last May 21, in the territory of Hawaii.

It is believed he may have been killed in an explosion which occurred in Hawaii the same day as his reported death. Private Kingsbury was in chemical warfare service and had been in Hawaii since July of 1942.

He was the first colored boy from Pettis county to volunteer for service in 1941. Private Kingsbury was 26 years old, graduated from Lincoln high school, in 1934, and attended Lincoln Institute at Jefferson City for one term. Prior to entering the service he was in the C. C. C. camps.

Surviving him besides his mother is his father Roderick Kingsbury, Sr., 111 West Johnson street, and two sisters, Miss Viva Kingsbury, who resides with her mother, and Mrs. Gwendolyn Tarrant, of Chicago.

Run-Away Girl Be Returned To Fayette

She ran away from home on June 10.

The sheriff of Howard county is coming to Sedalia today to take her into custody and return her to her home county.

Studies Farms And Industry

Brazilian In A Visit To Pettis County On Tour

Personal Item: Luiz Albuquerque, of Pernambuco, Brazil, has been visiting in Sedalia and Pettis county the past week.

Items like that may become commonplace in the newspaper of the future era of world-wide air transportation. But even today visitors from foreign countries seem to search out Pettis county for observation.

Fifty-one persons were convicted of sabotage and 531 others of various charges arising from the incidents.

Luiz Albuquerque has spent his time here visiting local packing plants and farms seeking information regarding poultry processing and production. On his farm visits he has been accompanied by County Agent J. U. Morris. He carries his end of conversation in fair English that indicates close study of this language.

The Brazilian is one of sixteen of his countrymen spending a year in the United States familiarizing themselves with modern methods of operation of farm enterprises. What they learn here they expect to apply in Brazil's development.

Impressed By Methods

One of the unusual situations the visitor said he observed was the manner in which midwestern farmers manage and work on their own farms with modern machinery and minimum of farm labor. In Brazil the manager does not assist in the labor but must direct the work of hundreds of manual laborers using old-fashioned implements to till the ground and harvest the crops.

Luiz Albuquerque spent five months in Texas. He has been to Columbia to confer with Missouri University Agricultural Department experts. He plans to make an extensive tour of this state and then go to New England for further observations before returning to his native land.

Two Buildings At Lake Burned

LAKE OZARK, Mo., July 15—(P)—Two buildings were destroyed and a third was badly damaged by fire in this community on the banks of the Lake of the Ozarks today.

Destroyed were a two-story building housing the Copper Kettle restaurant and a souvenir shop; and a building housing the Gordon Drug store and a restaurant. A nearby filling station was damaged.

Fire-fighting equipment from nearby Bagnell Dam and from Eldon was called when the fire was discovered at 3:30 a.m., but the fire was almost beyond control when it arrived.

Cause of the fire was not determined.

Conventions and international discussions are supposed to be binding upon all "civilized" nations.

The so-called rules of warfare consist of written and unwritten codes evolving from treaties, conventions and international discussions and are supposed to be binding upon all "civilized" nations.

The executions of airmen, distinctly members of armed forces, are banned under a section of the Geneva convention of 1929 (a part of the rules of war) which prohibits "measures of reprisals" against prisoners of war. But, as in all other instances of violations, there is no way for the United States to compel uncivilized Japanese to observe this prohibition.

In some military circles, there is a disposition to regard the Germans as somewhat more observant of the code when it is applied to those the Nazis recognize as members of armed forces.

Not Apply To Civilians

This, however, does not apply in Nazi dealings with civilian populations where the combination of Nazi political policy and the German army desire to maintain complete control and security in occupied areas has resulted in mass executions and other brutal excesses. This is reflected in the decision of the German supreme command to regard the organized resistance in France as the act of irregulars and not subject to international law. The decision was challenged today by General Eisenhower in his designation of the Maquis as an integral part of the Allied expeditionary force.

Read Bibles At Starlight

"It was inspiring to see the men setting around the fox holes at starlight when they had time reading their Bibles and prayer books. I now believe the old saying about Atheists in a fox hole."

In closing he said, "I am happy to say I am well and just tired."

Lieutenant Alpert's letter to his parents told of being well and all-right, but dealt more on the invasion of the island. He told of his outfit being landed about a mile from the point where they were supposed to have hit the beach, but under terrific cannon barrage from the Japs. Those guns were silenced by the navy.

A breeze from the west kept sparks flying across the pavement, and the heat was such it was not advisable for motor traffic to pass.

Japs In Threat Of Execution Of U.S. Airmen

Nipponese, It Seems Not Stand By War Rules

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Japanese propaganda broadcast from Singapore to American forces in the Southwest Pacific said yesterday (Saturday) that an unannounced number of U. S. airmen from Superfortresses which raided Japan had "bailed out to meet with the same fate which was meted out to me" in the fall of that Axis coastal anchor town two years ago."

In the 1942 raid, eight fliers were believed to have been captured, of which "some" were executed and "some" were given commutations, according to an announcement by President Roosevelt.

A New Deal For China

Vice-President Henry Wallace made a cracker-jack speech in Seattle, Wash., last Sunday night upon his return from visiting China. He is an ardent New Dealer, sincere and honest in his opinion about his philosophy. It is evident he is not satisfied establishing the New Deal program in America only, judging from one of the subtle sentences in his speech: "They (the Chinese) are good farmers, as I observed during my stay there, but they need a break—a new deal."

Shall We Pit Surrendered Germany?

Nazism and Germany are doomed. Their military leaders know this. They are continuing to fight, playing for time, and planting peace feelers on the theory they may get some charitable consideration from the Allies.

One would suppose that this being true, the Nazi leaders would call a halt to continued mass murders of civilians.

For several years, while the Germans were pushing forward victoriously, they established a program of mass slaughter and terrorization, confident, as victors, they would never be called to account.

But now, on the road to defeat, it is not understandable why they persist in wholly inexcusable mass slayings as they retreat. The only thing comparable to this inexplicable mental madness would be for the Allies to come under the spell of German pleas to dicker for something less stern than unconditional surrender.

We have heard much about the barbarism of the Japanese and have come to understand their blood-thirsty fanaticism. But it is almost unbelievable the German white man can be just as savagely inhuman. Yet the record is clear; there are too many authenticated cases against them.

Soon now we shall hear pleas for peace from the Germans. Will the Allies go soft and start bargaining with these maniacs who only recently machine-gunned 320 Italian civilians and sealed the dead bodies in a cave?

Out In The Open, For Once

Why do weighty, political decisions always have to be made in a smoke-filled hotel room? Especially in the summertime. Why not, for just once, isn't some consideration given to a better locale; a plot of open pasture land, landscaped with a keg of cold beer and tin cups?

The Necessity of Gas Rationing

The Petroleum Industry is behind an educational program on the continued necessity for gasoline rationing. A series of advertisements are being published in newspapers throughout the land, including this newspaper, in an endeavor to bring home to the average American the importance of gasoline conservation on the home front. The story is effectively told in these advertisements.

It is true that crude oil is being produced and refined at the highest rate in United States history. Yet the demands on the war front are growing as our offensives multiply.

One Flying Fortress in one hour burns up enough gasoline to last the average car owner six months. And there are many Flying Fortresses in the air day and night, let alone the hundreds of thousands of other army vehicles and ships using gasoline and oil to forge ahead.

The armed forces get first call on the nation's gasoline supply. For civilians there is some gasoline available if it can be shared fairly under the rationing system. The Petroleum industry knows this and is appealing for public cooperation.

An Appeal For Waste Paper

Today Sedalia will have its third one-day waste paper collection campaign. This is a Boy Scout activity of prime importance. Sedalians are urgently requested to have waste paper and magazines bundled and tied and placed at the curbs. This afternoon trucks will make the rounds collecting bundles to be delivered to the salvage agencies.

Many mills with important war contracts have almost exhausted their supply of this vital raw material and some have been forced to shut down temporarily. The critical situation can be relieved by public cooperation. In Sedalia approximately 6.4 pounds of household waste paper per person are available each month in addition to 4.2 pounds per person on surrounding farms.

Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the War Production Board, in a telegram to this newspaper, asks that an appeal be made to every man, woman and child of Sedalia to redouble their efforts in the U. S. Victory Paper campaign.

Yes, We Have No Dramatics?

In a very simple and rational statement, President Franklin D. Roosevelt announced he would serve a fourth term "if the people command me to continue in this office and this war."

The announcement, coming as it does before the Democratic convention, is a plain exposition of the president's desire to remain as the people's leader. Furthermore it comes this time without the evident deception of the historic 1940 Harry Hopkins string-pulling draft movement after the Democratic convention had gone into session.

The president was roundly criticized by many of his best friends for staging the 1940 show wherein he announced "I will accept only if you make Henry Wallace my running mate."

So in 1944 we have the forthright pre-convention announcement which is in good order. The dramatics are sort of left out this time . . . or are they?

President Roosevelt is a past-master in arranging dramatic political situations that simply sweep the people off their feet. He is an artist of showmanship. Hence one suspects that he missed a cue somehow in his official fourthterm announcement, so simple and human, and following the regular news conference formula.

On the other hand, logical consideration of F.D.R.'s flair for personal promotion by the dramatizing process is too much a native characteristic for observers to believe he ever overlooks any bets.

The Democratic convention is yet to be held. There are a few days remaining before its beginning and its end. The planners will see to it that it is not a drab affair. Pomp and showmanship will not be lacking.

No anthropomorphic divination is required to foretell that before the Democratic convention ends, President Roosevelt will place himself in relation to the convention in one of those picturesque spectacles that so delight the popular mind.

It is a part of the subtle and innocent appearing political game.

Before the presidential campaign is over this fall the Republicans will know that President Franklin D. Roosevelt is commander-in-chief of our armed forces in more than name only.

Warrensburg Doesn't Like Rent Control

The following editorial appeared in the Warrensburg Star-Journal:

The Need for Rooms Is Urgent

"Officers in charge at the Sedalia Army Air Base have made a plea to the Chamber of Commerce for more housing facilities in Warrensburg. The housing situation has grown more acute during the past few months until now the situation is serious.

"One of the contributing factors to the housing shortage has been the gross inequalities of the OPA rent control ceilings. The OPA rent control office is located in Sedalia and the representatives of that office have shown little inclination to equalize rents. Certainly Warrensburg is large enough to have its own rent control panel and steps to obtain it have been taken.

"In the meantime Warrensburg must provide homes for air base personnel. If you have any spare room available in your home you can render a great service by renting it. Perhaps you will not be able to obtain all the rent you think you should have but there is more than profit to be considered. Warrensburg homes have never been lacking in hospitality and this is a time that calls for genuine hospitality as well as patriotism."

Is there a little buck-passing going on over in Warrensburg?

Officers at the Sedalia Army Air Base want housing accommodations in Warrensburg as well as Sedalia. They ask for them in a plea to the Chamber of Commerce. Did the Warrensburg Chamber promise citizens high rentals and when the OPA freeze came along, did Warrensburg landlords crawl into their shells?

Does the Chamber now attempt through their newspaper to inform Warrensburg landlords to open wide their arms on the promise of getting their own rent control panel, hoping they may control such a panel to allow higher rentals?

The idea certainly seems fantastic. You can't control these OPA rent control panels. They have certain schedules set up. These schedules may be as unpopular in Warrensburg as they are in Sedalia. Nevertheless the high rental era has come and gone and Warrensburg may just as well become as reconciled to it as Sedalia.

Some of the rent control decisions appear absurd. Those thinking so have had the privilege of appeal to a higher panel in Kansas City or Dallas. Seldom, if ever, is the local panel's estimate so far out of line that an appeal will give much added relief to a landlord who thinks he ought to get $100 per month instead of $50, or $50 instead of $35.

The Sedalia rent control office has been cussed and discussed the past year; as a system and as individuals. But the local office didn't establish the system. As individuals they may err in estimates. Yet the fact remains a landlord has the privilege of appeal even though he's licked before he starts.

The Warrensburg charge that the Sedalia representatives have shown little inclination to equalize rents is a breath-taking contradiction of the facts. That's what the biggest gripe is about; they're being equalized too well.

So what's sizzling sauce for Sedalia is sizzling sauce for Warrensburg, and steps the latter town is taking to obtain a separate rent control panel to jack up the low rental requirements is like a Don Quixote tilting with windmills.

Bug Attack On The Home Front

Pesky bugs of all sizes and descriptions are plentiful these July days and nights, particularly after dark. They penetrate the homes to irritate and discomfort householders. Some are vicious rascals and their very touch is said to raise painful blisters on the skin.

Even so, we at home are mighty lucky when we consider the plight of our soldiers exposed to bullets, let alone the insect plagues of the wide open spaces.

What's a few June bugs or hard-shelled crawlers compared to what Frank L. Martin, Associated Press war correspondent and former news editor of the Sedalia Capital, experienced in the Burma jungles. In an article in Editor and Publisher he writes:

"... we slashed along the trail in mud a foot deep and alive with leeches.

"These blood-suckers attack by the scores, and as a result I halted every hour to pick off an average of 25 each time.

"Leeches work their way through almost any protection around your legs. When they bite, they inject a drug to kill the pain and serum to prevent blood coagulating and which keeps it flowing nicely into their swelling green and brown bodies. They can't be pulled off but must be forced off with a lighted cigarette. If they are jerked off their heads remain inside the wounds and the dreaded Naga sore develops which takes six months to heal.

"If let alone a single leech will draw about two cc's of blood. Multiply this by 25, the number of leeches that attach themselves to you each hour, and again by eight, the number of hours you are on the trail each day, and it can be seen why so many exhausted refugees succumb to leeches. Each wound bleeds for half an hour after the leech has been removed and by the end of the day my clothes were a dull red."

Parachuting at SAAF

This unusual photo shows three men bailing out of a C-47 transport plane over SAAF. The picture was shot a split second after the men jumped. The parachutes have not fully opened nor has the slack been taken up in the shroud lines. The aerial photographer who took the picture had to be strapped into the plane for safety.

GIRL SCOUT

"Good counselors make good camps" is a Girl Scout slogan in which we all believe. Good counselors are well trained counselors. With that idea in mind the Sedalia Council of Girl Scouts, has arranged for a pre-camp training period of three days at "The Little House" camp site, Tuesday, July 18, Wednesday, July 19, and Thursday, July 20, under the supervision of Mrs. A. A. Studebaker, commissioner; Mrs. Harry Lambirth, camp director and Mrs. P. Cecil Owen, assistant director. This training is for the leaders who will act as camp counselors for Day Camp week July 24-28.

Counselors are leaders of girls in camp. Leadership skills are the same the world over. In wartime everybody is deeply conscious of their responsibility to do a job which counts toward the war effort. Helping children meet these changed conditions is perhaps the chief justification for exerting ourselves to maintain camps in these difficult days. Hand craft will be a special feature and a skill in which most girls are interested, however, camp gadgets, outdoor fire building and other outdoor camp activities will be stressed. The leaders are asked to meet at the Elks club at ten o'clock Tuesday morning, from which place transportation will be provided to the "Little House." They will return to Sedalia about 3:30 in the afternoon.

Please bring a nosebag lunch and a sharp pocket knife.

The Girl Scouts are asking for discarded novelty beads, odd buttons, felt hats and ends of candles, any color will do. It is surprising the articles the girl can make out of these items that most housekeepers have stored away someplace.

Day camp registration cards have been mailed out this week, if for any reason you have not received your blank, please call the office, 521. Registration cards must be signed by the parent and returned to the Girl Scout office, second floor of the court house not later than July 19.

The office will be open Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon, one o'clock to four.

These men don't know the true facts. Do you?

REMARKS like these are not uncommon. Perhaps you've heard them made by your friends and neighbors—men and women whom you rightly consider good American citizens, upright and thoroughly well-intentioned. You wouldn't think of questioning their patriotism, either.

Yet, on this matter of gasoline rationing, such remarks mean just one of two things: Misunderstanding, or lack of correct information.

You, as a motorist, have so much at stake in this matter of the nation's gasoline supply that you certainly should know the true facts. And we of the Petroleum Industry have so much at stake that we are bound to give them to you with utmost frankness.

There is not plenty of gasoline—not even here in the Central States.

Our armed forces get first call on the nation's gasoline supply, of course. Their needs are tremendous—have been growing steadily greater month by month since we entered the war—will, undoubtedly, increase still further in the months to come. Huge as these military needs are, they're being met—and will be.

When that is done, however, there just isn't enough gasoline left over to permit civilian motorists to drive "as usual." Fortunately, there is enough to give everybody some gasoline, IF—if it can be shared fairly, and only if it is so shared.

That's why there must be rationing, and that's why it's to your own personal, selfish interest to help make rationing work. If it doesn't work, somebody is going to go without any gasoline—it could be you.

Furthermore, in the critical months to come, if our present system of gasoline rationing fails, much more drastic measures for control will be imposed—that you can depend on. Don't let it happen!

How you can help make gas rationing work: Don't apply for more gas than you really need. Get into a ride-sharing club and stick to it. Endorse all your gas coupons now—don't give any away. Don't take extra gas or coupons from anyone.

and they were able to reach their designated point with but few casualties, and established their beachhead as planned.

He told of the losses and wounded, but indicated his outfit did not suffer such casualties as others.

It is believed two other Sedalians are on Saipan, one who may have been in the actual major engagement and another who has gone there to relieve those who were in battle. They are Paul Evans, a corporal in the Marines, who was known to have left Hawaii and arrived in the area about the time of the battle, while the other is John Robert Chesser, also in the Marines.

Corporal Evans is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl "Potts" Evans, 620 Wilkerson, his wife, Mrs. Hazel Evans and their thirteen months old daughter, reside at 308 North Quincy. Chesser is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Chesser, 606 South Osage, and his wife, Mrs. Elsie Chesser, resides with Mr. and Mrs. Chesser.

Livorno Into Artillery Range

ROME, July 15.—(P)—Doughboys brought the great port of Livorno (Leghorn) into artillery range from the mountain positions three and one-half miles away today and in a sweep along a 25-mile front occupied all important heights nine miles from the Arno river guarding Florence and Pisa.

It appeared that Livorno, potential base for a grand assault on the Gothic line above Florence and Pisa, could not be held much longer by the battered German Fourteenth Army, now in full retreat.

Advances were general along the 160-mile front except in the center.

German positions south of the Arno appeared hopeless.

Doughboys following the withdrawal moved up the coast to within three and one-half miles of Livorno at one point last night.

To Recruit Men For Ships Repair

Harry C. Rafferty, recruiting representative, will be in the Navy Office in the Jefferson City Post Office Building from Monday, July 17 through Friday, July 21, to hire workers for the west coast and Pearl Harbor navy yards.

Both skilled and unskilled men are needed to repair battle-damaged ships of the United States fleet. Prevailing wages are paid and Government housing is provided at low cost. Workers are hired under the provisions of the U. S. Civil Service Commission.

Transportation, with meals en route, is furnished by the Navy to the places of employment.

Charged With Lack Of Driver's License

E. L. Calvert, 1017 West Seventh street, was arrested Saturday evening by the police on a charge of not having a state driver's license. He was released on bond to appear before Judge C. W. Bentz, Monday.

Mr. Calvert was the driver of a 1936 Packard sedan which figured in an accident at Thirteenth street and Lamine avenue, Saturday evening. The other car was a 1940 Chevrolet coach driven by Mrs. J. H. Winn, 1908 South Park avenue. Slight damage resulted to both vehicles.

"Vandalism" At The Glenn A. Cox Home

Sometime Wednesday night while the Glenn A. Cox family, of route 2, Sedalia, was away from home, their house was entered and a mysterious and unusual sort of "vandalism" took place.

Using a loaded B-B gun which belonged in the home, the culprit amused himself by shooting out light bulbs, shooting holes through toothpaste tubes, and even firing the little steel missiles into bars of soap on the bathtub.

Apparently, according to reports, the gun "jammed" and the guilty party abandoned his pastime and left the premises without causing further damage.

Snails Test Water

Snails succumb quickly to tainted water and, for that reason, are sometimes carried in dry countries to test widely scattered water holes before drinking from them.

Trip For Soldier-Of-The-Month

A three-day pass—the kind you dream about—will be offered to a soldier, selected by his Section Commander for the SAAF Soldier-of-the-month. After nomination by his Section Commander, the GI must appear before a board of officers, who will determine whether he is best qualified for the honor.

The lucky GI will be flown from SAAF to Kansas City, where he will be met at the airport by the Mayor, City Manager, City officials of the Kansas City Canteen, and—a group of TWA hostesses.

Special courtesies will be accorded to each month's contest winner upon his arrival.

He will then be driven to one of the best hotels in Kansas City, where he will check into an air-conditioned room, and where he can relax with that utter feeling of luxury one gets when one is footing a large bill; and that will not be you! Meals in the downstairs restaurant or breakfast in bed and room service will all be signed and paid for by Kansas City. The hotels will pay for the rooms, night clubs for the entertainment, and other merchants will pay for other phases of the weekend.

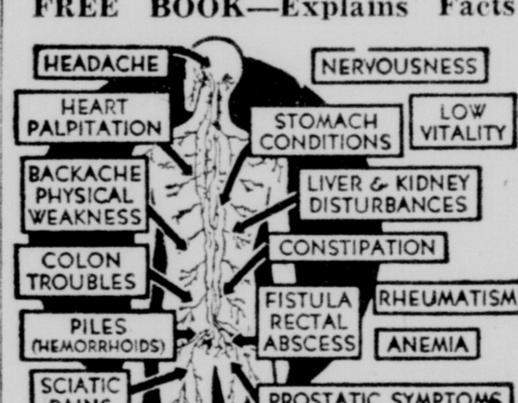

In the evening, the "chosen" GI will be entertained at one of the best night spots.

His family will not be neglected. The lucky one will be given a long-distance telephone call free, so that he may call his folks and tell them where he is and how much fun he is having.

The Chamber of Commerce and the Advertising Club of Kansas City will have the GI as their guest at a dinner.

Stokley Busy Bee Club

Hears of Hobbies
The Stokley Busy Bee 4-H club met at Stokley school, Wednesday, July 12. Nine members and four visitors were present. The roll call was answered by telling one's hobby. The program for the Extension club was practised. Some songs were sung and games were played after which refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held August 9 at the school house at 2:30.

ONE OF THE GREATEST musical combinations we know around these parts is the radionic organ of Gene Moore and electric guitar of Herb Kratoski blended into sparkling effects on the most popular tunes of the day. Now, add to that the lovely voice of a "heartbeat" gal (which they have done) and then you've really got sumpin'. Bonnie King... incidentally, a "pin-up" girl since dedicating special song "from me to you" to men in the service on her Monday, Wednesday, Friday evening shows at 9:45... has recently joined the boys in a half-hour musical nighttime show for daytime listening. This coming Tuesday afternoon, 'round 2:30, try dropping in, via your radio, on Bonnie, Gene and Herb-in Studio B, right at the end of Rhythm Row!

THE CAST OF "BRIGHT HORIZON," story of Michael West heard daily over KMBC at 10:30, is making plans for a gald birthday celebration in August. It will be three years on the air for the show, come the 25th, next month... Incidentally, Kansas Citians, did you know that Bob Griffin who plays Michael West is the same Mr. Griffin who at one time taught singing for several seasons at the Kansas City Conservatory?

AGAIN KMBC gives front row coverage of news while it happens when all outstanding features of the Democratic National Convention, from the opening addresses on Wednesday, July 19, to the final selection of party nominees will be broadcast from approximately 12 noon to 1 o'clock on Wednesday and Thursday and 9:00 to 10:15 Wednesday evening—9:00 to 10:45 Thursday evening.

The same CBS personnel which reported the Republican conclave two weeks ago will cover the Democratic Convention with Paul White, CBS Director of News Broadcasts, directing the radio proceedings.

IT APPEARS that unique musical programs are becoming the vogue around KMBC's program schedule with the addition of another melodious half-hour on Thursdays at 2:30. To give listeners something new and different in musical entertainment, P. Hans Flath, KMBC's musical director, has brought to the microphone with him Leigh Havens for a twin organ treatment on light classics, novelties and the favorite old ballads... Always something new and different to assure real listening pleasure!

Lt. Col. Wergin At SAAF Base

The scenery here is quite different from the scenery of jungle territory," said Lt. Colonel James R. Wergin, Base Director of Supply and Maintenance, when interviewed shortly after his arrival at the SAAF Troop Carrier base last week.

Colonel Wergin ought to know, as he has been overseas for twenty-eight months and just arrived to this country two months ago. He was the Engineering Officer with a Service Group in New Guinea and Australia, and served as A-4 or Supply Officer at Air Force Headquarters.

Mrs. Fay Wergin, the Colonel's mother, is stationed at Fort Maccon, San Francisco, where she runs the hostess house.

Pistol shooting and horseback riding are the Colonel's favorite sports.

He resides with Mrs. Wergin in Sedalia.

Colonel Wergin, who holds the permanent rank of first lieutenant in the Regular Army, intends to remain in the Army after the war. He has received a Presidential citation and wears the Theatre ribbons of the areas in which he has served.

Byberry Club Meets At Decker Home

The Byberry club met July 14 at the home of Mrs. Roy Decker. The following were visitors: Miss Ophelia Faulwell, Miss Edith Tomblinson, Miss Elizabeth Carson, Mrs. Earl Decker and Mrs. David Wittman.

The next meeting will be August 10.

Sedalia Postal Employees In Navy

This quartette of former employees at the Sedalia postoffice a few days ago returned to Farragut, Idaho, where they had been in naval training. Completing their course, they are ready for assignment, after a leave spent with their families here. They are left to right, Lyndford Hackler, 1104 East Tenth street; Ed Brummet, 1001 S. Harrison; Fred Brummet, 1700 S. Missouri, and Champ Richardson, 1020 South Harrison avenue. They entered the employment of the postal service at about the same time and have all received ratings as third-class petty officers and no doubt will be assigned to postal work in the navy either aboard ship or at some naval station.
